Case Western Reserve University / Digital Case Digital Assets Agreement

The purpose of the following form is to allow speakers at programs sponsored by organizations within Case Western Reserve University to approve having recordings of those programs made available to the general public through websites of Case Western Reserve University (CWRU) or Regionally Speaking. If a speaker does not approve, CWRU will not make that speaker's part of any program available.

It also allows the sponsoring unit to submit an audio or video recording to Regionally Speaking. Regionally Speaking will choose whether to make the program available on its network. Digital Case will make the program available and maintain the record for the purposes and in the manner describe below.

The speaker certifies that he or she has the right to post this work without violating any other person's copyright, per section 3 of the agreement. CWRU promises to distribute and preserve the work per section 5 of the agreement.

If you have questions about this agreement, please contact the Director of the sponsoring unit.

Please complete the agreement yourself or have your representative, who is authorized to enter into these types of agreements on your behalf, complete the form and sign for you.
